J.F. Burns 1st Graders Present "The Wackadoo Zoo"

On Tuesday night, J.F. Burns Elementary first grade, under the direction of Mrs. Jennifer Maegly, presented their spring musical to a packed house. The students, dressed in costumes such as cows, lions, pigs, and monkeys sang their hearts out about "The Strangest Zoo You Ever Knew," and "A Smile Can Go a Long, Long Way." The students and their parents created their own costumes for the production and parents helped to decorate the stage. Mrs. Maegly told the audience that it had been difficult to practice with all of the snow days we've had, but the students pulled off a perfect program!

Kings Students Paint Rain Barrels

Fifty artists from all over the Ohio River Valley have been selected to paint 50 rain barrels for the Regional Storm Water Collaborative, popularly known at savelocalwaters.org. KHS students, Mary Claire Bauman, Claire Middlekamp, Kianna Vires, and Brooke Connor will be working under the leadership of Carrie Cooke, painting two of the barrels. The program, hosted by the Cincinnati Zoo & Botanical Garden is a joint effort to educate the community about water conservation and pollution caused by storm water runoff.

The completed barrels will be displayed at Cincinnati Zoo's Go Green Garden during the month of April. For more information on the project click here.

KHS AP DMA Students Books on Display in Japan

Months ago we told you about the Kings High School Advanced Placement Digital Media Arts students who wrote stories, created artwork, and produced seven books that incorporate the theme of water pollution. Their books were hard bound and sent to Minamata, Japan for Advanced English students in Japan to translate into Japanese.

Recently, Kelly Shields, AP DMA instructor received word that the Kings' students project was featured in a local Japanese newspaper. The Minamata City Librarian wrote to Mrs. Shields, "Thanks to your ideas and efforts, and the connection you were able to form with Ms. Mai Kanzaki, you have formed a wonderful connection between Minamata and Ohio. We are truly grateful for all you have done."
