

Tuesday, January 29, 2019 - "Why Cultural Competency? I've Had Diversity Training"

Representatives from Did You Know Publishing, Monica and Marla Marsh, will be conducting this engaging, interactive, and reflective presentation, participants will experience a variety of ways to interact effectively across cultures and races. These dynamic presenters incorporate fun and humor into the training, in order to produce changes that last beyond the presentation.

Monday, February 11, 2019 - "Social Media: The Good, The Bad and The Ugly"

Do you know enough about social media to keep your child safe? Learn more about the popular social media platforms so that you can be informed and proactive and keep your child safe while using social media. The presenters are Kings high school students!

Tuesday, February 26, 2019 - CommUNITY Conversations: Achieving Inclusive Excellence

In this interactive session, Tommie Lewis, President & CEO of Make It Plain Consulting, will facilitate a listening session related to diversity and inclusion. Participants will have the opportunity to discuss ensuring equity and inclusion, social wellness, and other topics that need community input.

Tuesday, March 19, 2019 - Marijuana: Weeding Out the Good from the Bad

You've probably heard a lot about Marijuana in the media. Amy Fehrenbach and Tazeen Ahmed from Solutions Community Counseling and Recovery Centers will discuss all you want to know about marijuana. From recreational and medicinal legalization to claims of its benefits. Everyone's talking about it, but what do we know to be true? Discussion topics include: What is marijuana?, Marijuana in the media, Effects, dangers, and risks associated with marijuana use, Perception of harm among young people, Medical marijuana, and Prevention strategies and how to talk to youth about marijuana.

Thursday, April 18, 2019 - "Talk, They Hear You - Addressing Underage Drinking in Warren Co."

How much do you know about underage drinking among youth in Warren County? Should parents be concerned? Did you that underage drinking was an identified problem in Warren County? In this presentation, Kim Dooley and Amy Fehrenbach will discuss the risks of underage drinking, how to address it, and what the Substance Abuse Prevention Coalition of Warren County has done so far to address underage drinking in the community.

All presentations will take place in the Kings Junior High School Multipurpose Room, 5620 Columbia Road, Kings Mills, OH 45034 at 7:00 p.m.
All community members are welcome