

KJH 8th Grade Washington D.C. Trip

(for current 7th graders— class of 2029)

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Facts about the trip at a glance (details attached):

- Travel dates: October 23-25, 2024 (Trip ID: 15635A)
 - Follow the attached directions to sign up— all payments are made online via Group Collect. Do not send payments to school
- The trip includes stops to: Arlington National Cemetery, The Holocaust Museum, The White House, a Capitol tour, Mount Vernon, and several national monuments
- Students will be accompanied by KJH staff chaperones at a 15:1 ratio (no parent chaperones permitted on the trip).
- Students are expected to maintain proper behavior and attendance both prior to travel as well as during the trip: This trip is a PRIVILEGE
 - If a student receives an OSS (2nd semester of 7th grade through departure), they will be ineligible/removed from the trip.
 - If a student is demonstrating negative behaviors, the student and parents will have to sign a behavior contract.
 - If a student misbehaves on the trip, parents will need to pick them up and will not receive a refund (with follow-up discipline at school when we return).
- All expenses are covered in the price of the trip— the only money needed would be for optional snacks and/or souvenirs (amount to be determined by each family— suggested amount is $50-$75).
- Students are not permitted to carry their own medication (either prescription or over the counter)— medication forms must be filled out by the student's doctor and turned in to the KJH nurse PRIOR to travel. Medications will be held by the student's chaperone.
- Trip information will be posted on the school website after the meeting.
- Katy Shafer is the teacher in charge of organizing this trip for the 8th graders. Please contact her with questions (kshafer@kingslocal.net).
