As a Parent Support Provider Crystal offers:

- Emotional connection from a person who has "been there". Crystal is a peer to parents who is willing to share her own experiences and struggles in hopes of encouraging parents to reach out for needed support
- Referral to concrete support. Crystal is knowledgeable of community organizations in Warren County and surrounding area. She can give information and navigation support for available usable resources to alleviate stressors such as overdue bill help, employment barriers, transportation issues, finding daycare, housing, food, furniture, clothing, healthcare, household needs
- Educational parenting support, shares information about Natural Strength Parenting to help parents as they develop positive approaches and methods for addressing their family's day to day needs, including their own needs and the importance of self-care
- Connection to community involvement, shares knowledge of local family social activities, educational opportunities, afterschool activities/summer camps for children, local and online support groups, hosts parent engagement events
- Specialized support for families experiencing challenges with systems such as child welfare, juvenile courts, communication with schools, intensive support during times of crisis
